Makgoe opens new school and Grade R Classes in Wesselsbron

Free State Education MEC, Tate Makgoe will on Saturday, 22 September 2012 officially hand- over Grade R classes at Katoloso Primary School and the new School at Ithabeleng Secondary School, in Wesselsbron.

Two Grade R classes were built at Katoloso Primary School to develop appropriate support for children in this level. The School at Ithabeleng Secondary School will address overcrowding, and cracked walls to the previous building. About R1,5 was spent for the construction of Grade R classes at Katoloso Primary School and R30 million on Ithabeleng Secondary School.

The new Ithabeleng Secondary School consists of 30 classrooms, storerooms, administration block. Media center, hall and Two Science Laboratories. At Katoloso Primary School the building consists of two classrooms and 5 toilets.

In the past three years the department has delivered massive infrastructure to improve Quality education.

The details of the event are as follows:

Date: Saturday, 22 September 2012
